

Distribution of Information and 2018 LVW Schedules

*"I joined Vanguard to be closer to my family. In the end, Vanguard became my family. God has blessed me with new friendships and with memories. He has given me an experience that will guide me through my future."
Liesl Ragner, Fox Valley Lutheran High School*

All LVW information is available on our website. All newsletters and other announcements are posted to the website and occasional email. Please indicate your preferred E-mail address in the space provided on the online registration form. Note that there is a space for student and parent E-mail.

Important information is posted to the band's website at www.lutheranvanguard.org. You can check that website at any time. Links to new information will be posted on our Homepage. Look under the "Director's Updates" tab for updates and announcements. The registration, calendar, and parent volunteer opportunities will also available on the website.

LVW is also on Facebook! Search "Lutheran Vanguard of Wisconsin" for our general page. Members and parents for 2018 can also request to join the group page at "LVW 2018".

2018 Rehearsal and Performance Schedule

The 2018 schedule of parades and shows will be set very soon. Our schedule can be found on the "Schedule" tab of our website when it is available.

The first camp of 2018 will be held on January 6 and 7 at FVL. More information for this camp will be available on our website in December.

Good Financial Standing Requirement

LVW members MUST have all previous years' fees paid in full to be considered for membership. Fees for the 2018 season must also be paid according to the schedule as outlined on the previous page. Failure to do so may result in termination of membership. If there are special circumstances that prevent the fee from being paid on time, please contact James Neujahr at jneujahr@fvlhs.org or speak with him directly at 920-739-4441 x5160.
